The Warfare in the Land The New Testament does not command us to walk according to a particular teaching or doctrine. But it does charge us to walk in Christ or to walk in spirit. In Galatians 5:25 Paul says, "If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit."

- Life-Study of Exodus Message 12

The Passover In John 6:53 the Lord Jesus said that if we would have life, we must eat the flesh of the Son of Man. In verse 55 He went on to say, "My flesh is true food." Through incarnation, crucifixion, and resurrection Christ's flesh has become our food.

- Life-Study of Exodus Message 24

The Children of Israel Having Been Sanctified unto Jehovah Redemption is for our security, whereas sanctification is for God's purpose. If we are shortsighted, we may see only redemption, which is for our benefit. But if we have the proper discernment, we shall see that redemption must be followed by sanctification (Rom. 6:22), which is for the fulfillment of God's purpose.

- Life-Study of Exodus Message 27
