Excerpts from the Ministry

The subject of Mark is The Gospel of God—Proving That Jesus Christ Is the Slave-Savior. Click on the links below to read the full excerpts from Life-study of Mark.

- Anointed to Impart the Triune God to God's people
The first aspect of the commission Christ received from the Father was not to be a king or a prophet; it was to be a Sower, the One sowing the Triune God into us.
- Living a Life of God for the Kingdom of God
The One who lived a life fully according to and for God's New Testament economy, the One who has replaced us with Himself, is now the Spirit living through us.
- Our Need to Empty Ourselves to Enter into the Kingdom of God through the Growth of Christ Within Us
We should care only for Christ and for the growth of Christ within us.

WEEKEND RETREATS

at Bower House and Woodland Camp, Essex

In the month of April Amana Trust held its first weekend retreats covering the topic of God's eternal purpose as seen in the book of Ephesians. Participants from all over the UK came together at Bower House to enjoy mutual fellowship, speaking from God's Word, and opportunities to meet other seeking believers who live near them.

This month we will hold 5 additional weekend retreats where we will continue to explore the depths of God's purpose revealed in Ephesians.

We invite you to join us for the remaining retreats. If you would like to come and have not yet registered, please do so in advance by clicking on the link below.

These retreats are free of charge and include on-site accommodation, hot meals (including a barbecue), course materials, and shuttles.

For more information visit
